a brand new day...

YWCA Sonoma County is committed to Ending Domestic Violence through Awareness, Education and Empowerment.

Double the goodness

There must be something in the air...YWCA Sonoma County has the pleasure of being the volunteering destination for not one, but TWO couples named Ron and Sandy!

Ron Dodge has been helping the Safe House and A Special Place Therapeutic Preschool with maintenance and facilities needs since 2012. His wife, Sandy Dodge, has been helping out with administrative tasks since 2018 and recently completed the 40-hour hotline training and began working on our 24-Hour Hotline earlier this year.

Ron White has been reading to children at A Special Place Therapeutic Preschool since 2016 and is being joined by his wife, Sandra White.

A huge thanks to both couples for their commitment to ending domestic violence!

A Giving Spirit

As the holiday season arrives, we welcome the generous spirit that comes with it!

Our families have greatly benefited from the kindness of our community in the past, and we want to assure they continue to have happy holidays, which is why our programs have created a holiday wish list that you can find here. This list includes items our families have specifically requested to help them through the season.

40-Hour Training

Our next 40-hour training is just around the corner! It will take place the week of January 13th from 8 AM until 5 PM.

Fees are waived for current volunteers!

If you or someone you know may be interested, please contact Alli at 303-8403 or arios@ywcasc.org, but hurry! Spots are filling up quickly.
